SATURDAY, JUNE 10

TRADE COUNCIL OF AKRON

NORTH SPRINGFIELD.

The sixth annual Swinehart reunion was held in a grove on the Jacob Swinehart homestead, in Millheim, last Saturday. The assembly was called to order by the vice president at 11 a.m. After prayer there was a song by the quartet, composed of Mrs. Anna Hornberger, Miss Lottie Hornberger, Mrs. F. W. McChesney and Geo. Nourse, Jennie Hornberger presiding at the organ.

Remarks by Vice President Wm. Presler followed, after which the secretary and treasurer made their reports which were accepted. The following were elected officers for the ensuing year:

President, Samuel Swinehart; vice president, O. J. Swinehart; secretary, Nathan Swinehart; assistant secretary, Geo. Swinehart; treasurer, Geo. Swinehart.

The meeting then adjourned for dinner, of which there was an elaborate and bounteous supply, 233 being seated at the tables.

At 2:30 order was again called for when the following program was rendered:

Anthem, by the quartet; remarks by Geo. Garl and Samuel Swinehart; song by Mrs. Snideled and Rosa Ewell; declamations, by Helen Housel, Rosa Ewell, Lulu Kahler, Edith Tritt, Christina Miller and Helen Swinehart; address by Prof. John Woodling on "Benefits to be Derived from Reunions"; address on "The Home and Reminiscences of the Past Forty Years," by O. J. Swinehart; remarks by Elihu Swinehart; solo by Geo. Nourse. The reunion closed by singing, "God be With You 'Till We Meet Again."

A reunion will be held on the first Saturday of June, 1900; place undecided.

There were about 300 present to share in the merry occasion. Only two of our number out of an enrollment of 250 died during the past year. I am sure that all present are the gainers by spending a day thus with kindred and friends. Hoping that we may have the privilege of meeting in reunion in many years hence, I remain, your humble servant, O. J. SWINEHART, Secretary.
